

HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF TEMPLE CITY
COVID-19 Safety Policy and Procedure
Facility Use

COVID-19 SAFETY INFORMATION:

While participating in events held at the Historical Society of Temple City, consistent with CDC guidelines, participants are encouraged to practice hand hygiene, “social distancing” and wear face coverings to reduce the risks of exposure to COVID-19. Because COVID-19 is extremely contagious and is spread mainly from person-to-person contact, the Historical Society of Temple City cannot guarantee that Applicants or their guests, participants, volunteers, partners, or others in attendance will not become infected with COVID-19.

In light of the ongoing spread of COVID-19, individuals who fall within any of the categories below should not engage in events and/or other face to face activities. By attending an event at the Historical Society of Temple City Facility, you certify that you do not fall into any of the following categories:

1. Individuals who currently or within the past fourteen (14) days have experienced any symptoms associated with COVID-19, which include fever, cough, and shortness of breath among others;
2. Individuals who have traveled at any point in the past fourteen (14) days either internationally or to a community in the U.S. that has experienced or is experiencing sustained community spread of COVID-19; or
3. Individuals who believe that they may have been exposed to a confirmed or suspected case of COVID-19 or have been diagnosed with COVID-19 and are not yet cleared as non-contagious by state or local public health authorities or the health care team responsible for their treatment.

DUTY TO SELF-MONITOR:

Applicants, their guests, participants, volunteers, partners, or others in attendance agree to self-monitor for signs and symptoms of COVID-19 (symptoms typically include fever, cough, and shortness of breath) and, contact the Historical Society of Temple City at HistoricalSocietyOfTC@gmail.com if he/she experiences symptoms of COVID-19 within 14 days after attending an event at the Historical Society of Temple City.
